Tree plantation plays a crucial role in India's environmental conservation efforts. It helps in preserving biodiversity and balancing the ecosystem. It provides a natural habitat for many different species.

They are so valuable and significant that their applications have only grown to meet the demands of our modern lifestyles. Initially, the tree's wood was used fuel, and the fruits were devoured by people. The shade was utilized to keep cool in the summer and the fire to keep warm in the winter.

To make our world greener and better, more attention to tree plantation in the future. Individual contributions should be made first. We should also put a stop to tree cutting and remember that without trees, there will be no life.

The NSS Units of different colleges of Ranchi University celebrated World Population Day on 11th July 2021. This year, the theme of World Population Day 2021 is 'The impact of Covid-19 pandemic on fertility'. It is observed every year on 11th July to remind people of the challenges being faced due to over population. The day is marked to call for attention to issues like the importance of family planning, child marriage, gender equality, human rights, and others. The World Population Day was commemorated and recognized by the United Nations General Assembly in December 1990.

On this special day, the world comes together with the goal of highlighting the difficulties

Created by over population. It also raises awareness about how overpopulation may harm the ecosystem and the progress or growth of humanity.

On this day our NSS volunteers participated in Painting Competition regarding the control of Population. Nearly 100 volunteers took part in the painting competition, essay writing competition, speech competition and were recognized with certificates and mementos

The NSS play a significant role in observing this day and organizing programs that inspire and empower the youth.

NSS organized seminar and motivational session to educate and engage young people in discussions about swami Vivekanand teaching and ideals .session focus on topics such as leadership , character building , social responsibility and self- development . Through these programs , we aim to instill the values of discipline, compassion and service among the youth. We encourage young people to channel their energies towards constructive pursuits and contribute to the betterment of society.

NSS also collaborates with educational institution ,NGO and youth organisation to organize community service project on national youth day . volunteers engage in activities like cleanliness drives, blood donation camp and awareness campaigns on social issues. These initiatives not only contribute to community development but also foster a sense of social responsibility and empathy among the youth.

The role Of NSS on national youth day is to empower and mobilize the youth towards positive action.by organizing programs and initiatives ,NSS encourages young people to become responsible citizens who are committed to welfare of society . We heartily thank our supporter and Dr Brajesh sir for handing out this awareness program for common people and communities.
